

The Peninsula College Fund's Reception and Concert
High Notes for Higher Learning

Saturday, March 2, 2013

Homer Center, Sacred Heart Preparatory, 150 Valparaiso Avenue, Atherton, CA

Performances by

Joan Baez

American folk singer, songwriter, musician. The most accomplished interpretive folksinger of the 1960s, Joan Baez has influenced nearly every aspect of popular music.

Bella Sorella

Award-winning soprano ensemble. Bella Sorella's melodic and ethereal duets have earned them acclaim and recognition.

6:00 p.m. - Wine and Hors d'Oeuvres Reception

7:30 p.m. - Concert

Seating is limited; please order your tickets promptly by visiting www.peninsulacollegefund.org

Ticket Categories:

$125 Supporter: Reserved Seating

$250 Patron: Premium Seating

$500 Benefactor: Premium Seating & VIP Parking

$1,000 Champion: VIP Seating & VIP Parking

Coming from out of town? The Stanford Park Hotel in Menlo Park is offering a special rate of $159 for the nights of March 1 and March 2, 2013, to attendees of this event. Call the hotel at 1-866-241-2431 to make your reservations and ask for the PCF Benefit Concert rate.

Thank you for your generous support

Flegels

Interior Design & Distinctive Home Furnishings

Alana's Cafe
Epicurean Group
Evvia
Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar
Gordon Biersch Brewing Company
Il Fornaio

John Bentley's
Menlo Grill Bistro & Bar
Sunset Wine Club
Trellis Restaurant
The Village Pub
Vino Latino Wine Club

The Peninsula College Fund assists low-income, underserved and often overlooked first-generation college students from the Mid-Peninsula in their quest to graduate, and helps them achieve their education and career goals. Since 2005, more than 95% of Peninsula College Fund scholars have graduated from college or attend college on the path to completion.

www.peninsulacollegefund.org